Cancellations

Cancellations by The Durham Fly Fishing Company

1. In exceptional circumstances The Durham Fly Fishing Company may need to cancel a period of tuition. Initially a stand-in instructor will be sought to provide services on behalf of The Durham Fly Fishing Company. In the unlikely event that a cancellation is made, all monies paid to The Durham Fly Fishing Company will be refunded, or an alternative date/s will be offered. Any refund is limited to the amount paid to The Durham Fly Fishing Company and not any further expenses incurred by the client/s.
2. Occasionally we experience adverse weather conditions which can affect fly fishing. Examples include severe wind, extreme cold/frozen water, electrical storms, etc. The final decision of whether cancel the day due to adverse weather rests solely with The Durham Fly Fishing Company, or any instructor hired by The Durham Fly Fishing Company.
3. Most rivers in the North of England are fed by rainfall and after periods of heavy rain they can become swollen, dangerous and unfishable. Where tuition is booked to take place on a river the decision to fish, or not, rest solely with The Durham Fly Fishing Company or any instructor hired on behalf of The Durham Fly Fishing Company. Any decision made will be based on many years of experience and thorough risk assessment. Safety will not be compromised. You will be offered the choice of using an alternative river that is safe to fish/fishable, re-locating to a lake, postponing to a later date or receiving a refund of money paid. Where possible these decisions will be made in advance using experience and judgement, weather forecasts and advice from third parties (e.g. river keepers), though obviously this is not always possible.

Cancellations by Clients of The Durham Fly Fishing Company

1. When the services of The Durham Fly Fishing Company are booked, and a deposit paid, no further work can be booked for that day. However The Durham Fly Fishing Company realise that occasionally people have unforeseen commitments which may prevent them attending a pre-booked day. The Durham Fly Fishing Company operates a fair cancellation policy. If you need to cancel or change the date of a booking the following will apply:

- More than one month notice of cancellation or change - Refund of deposit (less any postage/admin costs incurred by The Durham Fly Fishing Company) or booking moved to an alternative date;
 - Less than one month but more than 14 days notice of cancellation or change - Loss of deposit if alternative date cannot be found.
 - 14 days or less notice of cancellation or change - loss of deposit
 - Less than 7 days notice of cancellation or change - full balance payable
2. Where a client does not attend at a pre-arranged meeting time and place, an attempt will be made to contact them, e.g. by mobile phone. If that client does not attend within one hour of the agreed time it will be assumed that the client has cancelled at less than 7 days notice and the above charge may be levied.

Complaints

1. In the unlikely event that you have a complaint about The Durham Fly Fishing Company, or any instructor hired by The Durham Fly Fishing Company, you should inform the instructor immediately so that he/she can try to rectify the complaint there and then. If this is not possible, for whatever reason, the complaint must be made to the instructor before your departure. Feedback and constructive criticism are encouraged. This may be done anonymously, in writing, if you so wish.
